

everyone belongs

Fort St. John Association
For Community Living

GREAT OPPORTUNITY

To earn an income from home & Make a difference in someone's life

The Fort St. John Association for Community Living (FSJACL) is currently seeking Home Share providers. Home Share Providers share their home with an individual with a developmental disability. The FSJACL connects potential home share providers with a person requiring support, according to their strengths, needs, experience, interests, personalities and more.

The Fort St John Association for Community Living (FSJACL) is an organization that provides a full spectrum of services from staffed residential support, home share, day programs, community inclusion and employment. Our vision is:

"People with Developmental Disabilities and Community, Meaningfully Connected – Everyone Belongs".

The FSJACL is currently seeking a family or an individual who is interested in sharing their home and providing supports for:

- A young man in his late 20's who has a developmental disability. He is very independent and can access the community on his own, but would benefit from a positive role model and someone to look out for his best interests. He is very easy going, has a great sense of humor and is currently employed.
- A very pleasant young lady in her late 20's who has a developmental disability. She has a wonderful sense of humor, requires some assistance with personal care and has limited verbal communication.

This is a contracted position and will require an application process, home study, health and safety check along with training, a clear criminal record search and other applicable requirements. The successful applicant would have full access to support from The FSJACL including professionals in the community. The ideal person/family would be:

- Willingness to welcome the person into their home as a contributing member of their household
- Able to provide support for activities of daily living
- Able to help facilitate opportunities for the person to be involved in the community

Financial Compensation is provided

If you are interested or have questions about the Home Sharing please call:

Pat Taylor

Home Share Coordinator

(Office) 250-787-9262-ext 224

e-mail: pat.taylor@fsjacl.com